Scotland's Bishops have published their General Election Statement. The short document asks voters to consider a series of factors before deciding how to vote. The document repeats previous calls for respect for life and support for families, but makes a special plea this year for EU nationals caught up in the uncertainties of Brexit to be granted security. It also contains a powerful call for a welcome to be afforded to refugees and asylum seekers and denounces the use of weapons of mass destruction as a "serious crime against God and humanity".

Concert in St. Bride's: On Thursday July 20th at 7pm an Italian artiste Roberto Tardito will give a concert in our church. He will be on his tour Europe/America 2017-2018. Tickets £10 will be available on pre-sale a few weeks before the concert.
