

The Statue of St John Paul is almost ready, and photographs of the statue can be seen at the back of the Church.

Club 200: This week's £60 winner is Dorothea Clifford.

Please pray for our sick and housebound and for those who care for them:

The Diocesan Office has advised parishes that with the introduction of new Data Protection laws on 25 May 2018 it is no longer permissible to publish the names of the sick on the online version of parish bulletins. It is still permissible to do so on the print version.

Anniversary: Christine Sarah Maguire (3rd Anniversary).

Recently Dead: Anne Lloyd (Reading), Andrew Riley (Baillieston), and Gerry McDonald (Morar), Paul Kelly.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

The Third World Group: Many thanks to all who took part in the cycle run, and of course to the Parishioners who came along and made the day such a success. Thank you all.

St Brides Fete will be held on Sunday 8 September from 12.30 to 3.30pm in the Parish Hall. This is an ideal opportunity for the families of the Parish to socialise as a community and raise funds for Loaves and Fishes and Kilbryde Hospice. Donations of bottles and raffle prizes can be handed into Fr Rafal. Anyone wishes to help with preparation or running a stall contact John Henvey on 07708917174.

RCIA: Pentecost has brought the R.C.I.A. Programme (2018-19) to a close. We wish Alison and her family every blessing as she journeys forward in faith. Our new session will commence in August, and we take this opportunity to extend an invitation to anyone who has been thinking that they might like to become a Catholic; to anyone who is interested in deepening their understanding of their faith; and to anyone who would simply like to know more about Catholicism to join us. There will be an opportunity to speak to members of RCIA in the Parish Library on Tuesday 13th August at 7pm and Sunday 18th August at 2pm. Registration of those interested would then take place on Tuesday 20th August when the first session will begin. We look forward to hearing from you. The team contact details are given below.
