

Club 200: This week's £60 winner is Patricia Miller. Please collect your cheque from Fr Rafal. The current loan stands at £281,449.34.

There will be a Eucharistic Service this Thursday and Friday at 10am.

Kilbryde Hospice Kiltwalk: John Carroll is going to take part in the 16.5 mile Kiltwalk, on Sunday 26 September to raise funds for Kilbryde Hospice. All money he raises will be topped up by the Kiltwalk by 50%. Donations can be made to John's JustGiving page by going to: <https://bit.ly/3D7oFum>. Donating through JustGiving is simple, fast and totally secure. Once you donate, the money gets sent directly to The Kiltwalk. It's the most efficient way to give - saving time and cutting costs for the charity.

Laser Projectors: We have finally installed two laser projectors and screens which will be used during Mass and services for hymns, readings, mass responses etc, therefore, there will no longer be any need for hymn books or mass leaflets. We will consider the need for two more additional projectors for the other side of the church next year. The order of service for funeral Masses or special occasion Masses will also be shown. Families who wish to have the Order of Service displayed on the screen should send Fr Rafal an electronic version of the Order of Service. A laser projector has also been installed in our Parish Hall, and we think it would be especially useful for the Children's Liturgy. The projectors are connected to the internet and the sound systems in both buildings.

Please pray for our sick and housebound and for those who care for them:

The Diocesan Office has advised parishes that with the introduction of new Data Protection laws on 25 May 2018 it is no longer permissible to publish the names of the sick on the online version of parish bulletins.

It is still permissible to do so on the print version.

Baptismal Congratulations this Sunday to:

1. Florense Afasanwo and Glover Ogbodu (their son Kevin Prince)
2. Jana Puskova and Roman Polak (their daughter)

Anniversary: James McCabe.

Recently Dead: Seamus Donnelly, Joseph Sheerin, Robert Tamburrini, Clotilde Main.

May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Sister Sheila: As we know, Sister Sheila's 10th anniversary fell on Wednesday 8 September (Our Blessed Lady's birthday), and we were planning to share moments of her time in our Parish at the coffee morning on Thursday 9 September. Unfortunately the internet was down and we couldn't run the slideshow, but we now plan to show the presentations on Thursday 16 September during the Coffee Morning. We look forward to seeing you there. Sister Sheila's Garden is now finished, and Parishioners are welcome to sit on her bench and pray/reflect.

Parish Greek Family Afternoon: On Sunday 19 September at 12.30 pm we are holding a family afternoon in the Parish Centre. Many Greek/Mediterranean dishes will be prepared by our chefs Helen. You can choose whatever you wish from the varied menu. All families welcome along with children and friends, and we especially invite our parish volunteers. Admission is free. For track and trace purposes we need your name, address, telephone number and number of people attending.

Deacon Michael: As part of Bishop Toal's reorganisation of Deacons in the Diocese, Deacon Michael will be going to St Columbkille in Rutherglen. Deacon Michael's last weekend in our Parish will be Sunday 19 September. We take this opportunity to thank Deacon Michael for all he did while in the Parish, and wish him well in his new appointment. Our parish lunch on 19 September will therefore be a 'Farewell' event. Everyone is most welcome to come along, however, you have to book your seat. The presentation of the parish's gift to Deacon Michael will be made at this afternoon reception. A special collection will be taken up on Sunday 12 September for anyone who would like to contribute to Deacon Michael's presentation.

How the Pandemic Affected Us: As part of our Family Afternoon we thought that Parishioners may wish to share their thoughts on how the pandemic affected them, their experiences, and how it may have changed their way of thinking. This would be done in the form of a slide show, and presented during our Parish Afternoon. Anyone wishing to take part should email their comments, experiences and photographs (if any) to bulletin@sbek.org by Sunday 12 September, or by handing their comments to Fr Rafal, or call 07999 551680 where we will be happy to help. Parishioners wishing to share their photographs on the Parish FB page should speak to Fr Rafal or email bulletin@sbek.org.

Hall Keeping: We are still needing volunteers to help with hall keeping duties. If you can help, please speak to Fr Rafal or our hall keeper, Daniel Martin.

Eucharistic Ministers can now resume their ministry. However, they are allowed to visit only one household a day. Please, speak to Fr Rafal, if you want to resume as a Eucharistic Minister, or if you want the Holy Communion to be brought to you.

Altar Servers can now resume their ministry. Both adult and young altar servers are allowed to serve at mass, but they have to wear face masks all the time, except the time when receiving the Holy Communion.
