Ukraine Appeal: Our third lorry of humanitarian aid for Ukrainian war refugees was loaded on Holy Wednesday night. Thank you to our team of about 18 people which did the job very well. The third lorry was unloaded in Caritas Siedlce on Easter Thursday 21 April. A big 'thank you' goes to Jim McLusky of Enviro-Clean who covered the cost of sending the third lorry.

We continue accepting donations of goods for the Ukrainian war refugees. These can be brought to St Bride's Pastoral Centre/Hall each Friday between 12.00 am and 5.00 pm. We kindly ask you not to bring any more clothes. Donations of food, toiletries, medical supplies, blankets, sleeping bags, and items for women and children are very welcome. If you wish to help with sorting and packing the donations, please contact us on 07932 039810. Fr Rafal thanks you all for any contribution towards this appeal. As of 25 April 2.944 million Ukrainian war refugees crossed the Polish border. At the moment 135K Ukrainian children who fled to Poland signed up for education in primary schools in Poland; some 60K signed for the secondary level education in Poland and around half a million of children staying in Poland continue their Ukrainian education via online platforms. Please remember the people of Ukraine in your prayers, so that we can see the end of this war, please God.

200 Club: Renewals for those who are in the 200 Club are due now. Those paying their subscriptions each 6 months by cash or cheque, the £30 subscription fell due at the end of March. Apologies for the late notification. Subscription can be placed in an envelope and posted through the Chapel House door or in the Sacristy. Please mark your name on the envelope. If paying in cash, please do not send the cash through the post.
