THE MIRACULOUS MEDAL

The Feast of Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal falls later this week. Where did the Miraculous Medal come from?

The night of 18th July 1830 was a night that would change the history of the world! A twenty-four-year-old novice, Catherine Labouré, was asleep in her cell in the Convent of the Sisters of Charity, in the Rue du Bac, Paris. when she was wakened by her Guardian Angel who said to her: "Come to chapel; the Blessed Virgin is waiting for you."

She was led to the chapel and knelt by the chair used by the Priest. Suddenly, she heard the rustle of silk and saw a Lady walking towards her: she was dressed in a long ivory-coloured robe, with a blue sash, and a white veil. She sat down. The Angel said to Catherine: "This is the Blessed Virgin." Then Our Lady spoke to her: "My child, God wishes to entrust you with a mission."

She told Catherine that she would have to endure many trials, but she would have the consolation of knowing that she was working for the glory of God. Our Lady continued:

"The times are evil. Sorrows will come upon France. The Cross will be thrown down and trampled to the ground." Then Our Lady pointed towards the the altar and said: "Come to the foot of the altar. Here graces will be shed on all who ask for them." Our Lady's predictions came true: the following week, a revolution broke out in Paris, the King was deposed, and rampaging mobs desecrated churches.

The mission that Catherine was entrusted with was given to her on November 27th 1830 - the First Sunday of Advent. Our Lady appeared with her arms and hands pointed downwards; a cascade of rays fell from both hands onto a globe. An oval frame surrounded her, and in it was written the prayer, 'O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.' Then the vision revolved to show the reverse side of the medal: a Cross intertwined an 'M'; beneath were the Hearts of Jesus and Mary; encircling all of this were twelve stars. Catherine was invited to: "Have a medal struck" , and told that: "All who wear it will receive many graces."

Until shortly before her death Catherine kept a strict silence concerning these apparitions, speaking of them only to her confessor. For forty-six years she witnessed miracles wrought through the Medal - millions of which had been struck. During all this time she performed her duties quietly and humbly, taking care of the elderly in a nursing home run by the Daughters of Charity in Paris. On the 31st December 1876, Catherine died. Her body was exhumed fifty-seven years later and it was found to be in perfect condition. She was canonised by Pope Pius XII on July 27th 1947.

In the past, many parishes had a weekly Novena to Our Lady of the Miraculous Medal - I would like to start this Novena in Saint Bride's on a Wednesday morning at the end of 10am Mass. Please join us if you can.

THE SEASON OF ADVENT

Today is the First Sunday of Advent and the beginning of a new Liturgical year. Advent is not a penitential season, but one of joyful expectation as we think of the two-fold coming of the Lord: his second coming at the end of time, and, as of the 17th December, the focus shifts to his first coming as an infant at Bethlehem and the celebration of Christmas. Traditionally, the brass furnishings, as well as the gold vessels, are replaced with more sombre silver furnishings and vessels. Royal purple, in honour of the Messiah, who will come as king of heaven and earth, yet paradoxically, born in poverty and obscurity, is the colour of the season, except on the Third Sunday (Gaudete Sunday) when rose-coloured vestments are used. Please make Advent a holy time for yourselves and your families.
