

SAINT BRIDE'S PARISH, EAST KILBRIDE

Bulletin for the Solemnity of the Nativity of Our Lord - 25th December 2025

CHRISTMAS FROM ANOTHER PERSPECTIVE

Oscar Romero was born in 1917, in El Salvador, the son of poor parents. He was an apprentice carpenter before entering the seminary and was ordained to Priesthood in 1942. When he became Archbishop of the capital city, San Salvador, in 1977, he used a weekly radio broadcast to denounce the escalating atrocities during the Civil War. On the 24th of March 1980, Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. He was canonised by the late Pope Francis in 2018.

No one can celebrate a genuine Christmas without being truly poor. The self-sufficient, the proud, those who, because they have everything, look down on others, those who have no need, even of God - for them there will be no Christmas

Only the poor, the hungry, those who need Someone to come on their behalf, will have that Someone. That Someone is God, Emmanuel, that is, God-with-us. Without poverty of spirit, there can be no abundant gift of God.

As a shepherd of Christ's flock, I must announce the good tidings tonight, but I must also be like one of those shepherds of Bethlehem and receive from the angels the news that stirs our hearts. Let us receive it, you and I, with the same simplicity and humility as those shepherds did. The more simple and humble, the more poor and detached from ourselves, the more full of troubles and problems we are, the more bewildering life's ways... the more we must look up to the skies and hear the great news: "A saviour is born to you."

And let us hear in chorus that great news, sung throughout the universe, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to those whom God loves."

Dietrich Bonhoeffer was born in 1906 in Breslau, Germany. He completed a doctorate in theology by the time he was twenty-one. He went on to become an influential Lutheran pastor, theologian, and anti-Nazi dissident. Following a failed attempt to assassinate Hitler, documents were found linking him to the resistance movement. He was executed at Flossenbürg concentration camp on the 9th of April 1945, just weeks before the Second World War ended.

For a Christian there is nothing peculiarly difficult about Christmas in a prison cell. I dare say it will have more meaning and will be observed with greater sincerity here in this prison than in places where all that survives of the feast is its name.

That misery, suffering, poverty, loneliness, helplessness and guilt look very different to the eyes of God from what they do to man: that God should come down to the very place which men usually abhor; that Christ was born in a stable because there was no room for him in the inn - these are things which a prisoner can understand better than anyone else.

For the prisoner the Christmas story is glad tidings in a very real sense. And that faith gives the prisoner a part in the communion of saints, a fellowship going beyond the bounds of time and space and reducing the months of confinement here to insignificance.

On Christmas Eve I shall be thinking of you all very much, and I want you to believe that I too shall have a few hours of real joy and that I am not allowing my troubles to get the better of me. Father McGachey

FROM FATHER McGACHEY AND FATHER MARTIN

Our sincere thanks to all those who made the season of Advent so special by their attendance and prayerful participation in our seasonal liturgies, particularly the groups of parishioners who regularly attended the weekday Holy Masses: the 7am Rorate Coeli Mass and the 10am Mass. We would like to pay tribute to the many hundreds who attend Holy Mass here faithfully each Sunday. A recent census of those coming to Mass in November, showed that eight hundred people came Saint Bride's over that weekend - that is more than double the number of four years ago! Last weekend, on the Fourth Sunday of Advent, we printed four hundred bulletins, and we still ran out!

The Monday night devotions in honour of Our Lady were very well attended, as was the Evening Prayer on some days of the week - this was new to the parish. Last Saturday, with the generous help of visiting priests, we must have heard 500 Confessions! There was a constant flow of penitents from 9.30am until 4.30pm. This shows a real willingness to prepare spiritually for the Feast of Christmas.

Our thanks go at this time to all who have helped to prepare the Church for Christmas with their time, energy and commitment: the fifty or so people, of all age groups, who came earlier in the week to clean the Church, as well as our permanent team Church cleaners; our musicians: four regular organists, our two cantors and our small choir; those who look after the altar linens and sacred vestments; the pass keepers; those who prepare our weekly worship leaflets and bulletin; readers and extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist; our altar servers; the flower arrangers and tree decorators; the Children's Liturgy group, and the many others who work in the background to ensure the smooth running of the Parish Hall.

A special thanks to those who have helped in sacristy this past week for all their hard work - their resourcefulness and patience, as well as the time they have given of so generously, is to their eternal credit!

Thank you, too, to all those who have returned their Christmas Collection envelopes, for their generous donations to the parish. The bills and financial commitments that Saint Bride's has are truly frightening sometimes, and a source of anxiety for me as Parish Priest. Your generosity helps us to face the future with more confidence.

Sincere thanks to several individuals for their kindness to the Parish: to those who donated the flowers on the sanctuary, the Christmas Trees that adorn the Church, the new vestments and vessels we have been using over the Advent Season and will use during the Christmas Season. To those who have given generous offerings with Christmas Remembrance Masses, which have arrived in such big numbers this year.

Finally, to those who have given Father Martin and myself cards and gifts - heartfelt thanks! We are touched. We wish, each and every one of our parishioners, and visitors alike, a happy and blessed Christmas. Father McGachey and Father Martin
