

SAINT BRIDE'S PARISH, EAST KILBRIDE

Bulletin for the Third Sunday of the Ordinary Time

25th January 2026

SAINT BLAISE, PATRON AGAINST ALL ILLNESS OF THE THROAT

Next Sunday, as well as blessing candles for use in our homes - it is the Sunday nearest the Feast of the Presentation of Our Lord in the Temple, the fortieth day after Christmas, sometimes called Candlemas - we will be offering the traditional Saint Blaise Blessing of Throats (his feast day actually falls next Tuesday).

We know only a handful of facts about him: he was a fourth-century bishop in the city of Sebaste, in modern-day Turkey. As a physician, he was a well-respected man, and that he was elected bishop by his fellow citizens.

In the fourth century, the Roman Empire was divided between the Emperor Constantine in the West and the Emperor Licinius in the East. While frequently at odds, they came together in 313AD at Milan, to sign what would become known as the Edict of Milan - intended to end the persecution of Christians. Most historians agree that Licinius only signed the Edict for political reasons and continued the persecution.

At first Blaise avoided arrest by withdrawing into the hills near Sebaste, where he lived in a cave. Eventually he was discovered. According to tradition, as he was being marched by the soldiers to prison, two things happened: firstly, he met a poor woman whose pig had been seized by a wolf. At Blaise's command, the wolf restored the pig to its owner, alive and unhurt. This same woman, to repay his kindness, would come to visit him in prison, bringing wax candles to light up his prison cell. Again, enroute to the prison, a mother came to plead with Blaise to help her son who was dying because a fishbone was lodged in his throat. Blaise prayed over the boy, and he was healed. For this reason, he is always depicted with: candles, a pig and fish bones - see right.

The Roman governor of Sebaste, Agricola, demanded that Blaise deny Christ or be tortured. Refusing to do so, he ordered that the flesh be torn from Blaise's body with steel combs. No amount of torture, however, would push Blaise to deny Christ, and so he was beheaded.

The similarity of the instruments of his torture - two wool combs - led to him being named the patron saint of wool combers, and of the wool trade in general, especially in England in the Middle Ages. In fact, the fourteenth century King, Edward III, ordered the Lord Chancellor of his government to sit on a wool bale, now known as the Woolsack, in order to underline the importance of wool to the economy. The Woolsack is still in the House of Lords today - it is the large wool-stuffed seat, covered with red cloth, with neither back nor arms, and upon which the Speaker of the House of Lords sits, along with the Lords Mace - the symbol of royal authority to meet and pass laws.

The miraculous cure of the boy meant that Blaise was invoked against all ailments of the throat, and by the fifteenth century, the ritual Blessing of Throats was widely given on his feast day. We will offer this blessing next Sunday. It is given with two candles, which will be blessed at Mass. The Priest places the candles around the throat, using the formula: "Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, may God free you from every disease of the throat, and from every other illness beside." Father McGachey

CHILDREN'S LITURGY - PREPARATION FOR FIRST COMMUNION

This will take place in the Main area of the Parish Hall and will start at 9:15am each week. The children will come back to the Church at 10am. SUNDAY 1st OF FEBRUARY - FEAST OF OUR PATRONESS, SAINT BRIDE, AND THE SUNDAY NEAREST THE FEAST OF PRESENTATION

As well as marking in a special way at each of the Masses next weekend, the Feast of Saint Bride, our parish patroness, Sunday the 1st of February is the Sunday nearest the Feast of the Presentation in the Temple - see below. We will bless candles for use in our homes at each of the Sunday Masses. These candles, modestly priced, may be purchased, if so desired. Every Catholic home should have two blessed candles - a custom of our faith.

MONDAY 2nd FEBRUARY - FEAST OF THE PRESENTATION OF OUR LORD IN THE TEMPLE

The fortieth day after Christmas and the commemoration of how the infant Jesus was presented by Mary and Joseph, in the Temple in Jerusalem, and met by the elderly Simeon and Anna. For centuries, it has been the day for blessing the candles used in the Church; it is sometimes called Candlemas Day. At the 10am Mass today, we will bless candles for use in the Church over the coming year, followed by a candlelight procession around the Church and sung Mass, with organ and incense. Please join us, if you can, for this beautiful Feast.

MARIAN DEVOTIONS BEGIN ON MONDAY EVENING, THIS WEEK AT 7pm - AS PREVIOUSLY ADVERTISED

Gathered at Our Lady's altar we will offer her our day: our joys and sorrows, and ask her to present them to her Son, while commending ourselves to her protection and guidance.

After reciting the Angelus, we will form a torchlight procession and move off to the main part of the Church, where we will recite the Holy Rosary, the Litany of Loreto and conclude with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Please join us if you can.

CELEBRATING THE BAPTISM OF CHILDREN

It is always a pleasure and a joy to baptise the children of parishioners and to see parents bring their little ones to the Lord and to the Community of Faith. Please do not hesitate to ask to have your child baptised. We will do our very best to have you prepared and to accommodate a time when it can take place. Naturally, it is expected that when an infant is baptized, there will be parents, or others very close to the child, who will take the sacred responsibility of handing on the Faith to the child so that there is the realistic possibility the child can be raised in the Catholic Faith.

Infants are to be baptised as soon as possible after birth. Thanks to better health and the possibility of relatives and friends travelling from distance or overseas, perhaps there is not the urgency of past years to have an infant baptised quickly, but that should not mean postponing baptism for an inordinate period of time.

If you have a child to be baptised, please speak to us, so that it can be arranged.
