

SAINT BRIDE'S PARISH, EAST KILBRIDE

Bulletin for the Solemnity of the Epiphany of Our Lord - 4 January 2026

WE SAW HIS STAR IN THE EAST Vidimus stellam eius in Oriente

When most people have packed away all trace of Christmas for another year, probably because they were celebrating it much too early (from the middle of November, in some instances), the Church continues her celebration of this holy season with the Solemnity of the Epiphany of the Lord. Our ancestors believed firmly in the Twelve Days of Christmas - twelve days of celebration after Christmas itself. I think we should too!

The Epiphany remembers the arrival of the Magi or Wise Men, who following a Star, journeyed to Bethlehem, with gifts for the Christ-Child. We have added the Wise Men figures to the Crib in the Church. By the side of the Crib, we have placed gold, frankincense and myrrh - the gifts they brought. Please have a look at them up close - smell them, touch them... If you have children, let them do the same!

The word Epiphany, from the Greek, means 'revelation' - we celebrate Christ's Epiphany to the Gentiles, represented by the Wise Men from the Persia (modern-day Iran), whose coming to Bethlehem is told by Saint Matthew in his Gospel - which we will hear read at Mass today.

Although Matthew's Gospel does not tell us how many Wise Men there were; nor tell us their names, Western tradition says there were three Wise Men, probably because of the three gifts they brought. In the Eastern Churches, however, the number of Wise Men is twelve!

As early as the Third century, they were considered to be kings, probably interpreted as the fulfilment of the prophecy in the Old Testament Book of Psalms - Psalm 72, verse 11 says: "May all kings fall prostrate before him and offer him their gifts."

In the Eighth century, the names of three Wise Men appear in a chronicle known as the Excerpta latina barbari: Balthasar, Gaspar and Melchior. According to Western Church tradition, Balthasar is often represented as a king of Arabia, Melchior as a king of Persia and Gaspar as a king of India.

They came with gifts for the new-born child; gifts which would prefigure his future life: gold for a king, incense for a priest, and myrrh for someone who would suffer and die.

Gold was even rarer in the ancient world than it is today, and because of its incorruptibility, people connected it with immortality and divinity.

Frankincense and myrrh are fragrant gum resins that come from trees found in the Middle East. One tree can produce about ten kilos of resin a year. The harvesting methods have not changed in two thousand years - a cut is made in the tree trunk, causing the gum to seep out; it eventually hardens into resin and is scrapped off the bark and collected for use.

Frankincense was the main component of incense - when burned, its aroma was thought to be pleasing to God. It was used in the religious rituals of the peoples of the ancient world. Myrrh means 'bitter' in Arabic. Principally a luxury item, it was used in perfumes, cosmetics and medicine (for indigestion, to heal wounds, as a pain killer...). At the crucifixion, Jesus, wracked with pain, was offered myrrh, mixed wine, but he refused it. In fact, Saint Luke tells us that Christ's body was prepared for burial with a mixture of aloes and myrrh.

THE CHRISTMAS SEASON CONTINUES THIS WEEK

Monday is the memorial of Saint John Neumann (+1860). Born in Budweiser, Bohemia (the modern-day Czech Republic), a talented linguist, he felt a drawn to help in the American missions. After coming to the United States, he was ordained in New York. Entering the Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (Redemptorists) in 1840, he worked in establishing parishes and Catholic schools. In 1852 he was consecrated Bishop of Philadelphia. On Tuesday, we keep the memorial of Saint André Bessette (+1937). Born near Quebec, he entered the Congregation of the Holy Cross as a brother. Carrying out the most menial of tasks for more than forty years, he entrusted the poor and sick, who flocked to him asking for prayers, to the care of Saint Joseph. During his life he was able to have a chapel built to the Saint. After his death, the chapel grew into the great basilica known as Saint Joseph's Oratory in Montreal. Wednesday is memorial of Saint Raymond of Peñafort (+1275). Born in Barcelona, Raymond, became the Superior-General of the Dominican Order. He wrote five books of Decretals which are now a valuable part of the Canon Law of the Church, and the Summa Casuum, which deals with the fruitful celebration of the Sacrament of Penance.

Next Sunday is the Solemnity of the Baptism of Our Lord, and the end of the Season of Christmas. The Church recalls Our Lord's second 'manifestation' or 'epiphany', which occurred when he was baptised in the River Jordan, by his cousin John the Baptist. At Mass next weekend, we renew our Baptismal Promises and have the Rite of Sprinkling with Holy Water afterwards.

RETIRING COLLECTION - NEXT SUNDAY

This will help support the work of the Justice and Peace Commission, an arm of the Bishops' Conference of Scotland. I am sorry that this falls so soon after Christmas!

CAN YOU HELP, PLEASE..?

After 10am Mass on Monday 12th January, could anyone please spare an hour to help us take away the Christmas trees, the Crib figures etc? We would really appreciate any help you can give.

CRIB OFFERINGS

Will go to the Saint Margaret's Adoption and Child Care Society. Please be generous as you always are.

WE RETURN TO OUR NORMAL SCHEDULE AS OF TOMORROW
Exposition 9.15am, Rosary 9.30am and Holy Mass (Monday to Friday) 10am.

THE 10am MASS ON SATURDAY MORNING

In common with other years, we have decided to take the 10am Mass off the schedule until the beginning of February. The Saturday morning Mass is by far the least well-attended Mass of the week at Saint Bride's. This will allow the parish clergy to take some time off before Lent begins. There will be a 10am Mass in at least some of the other Catholic parishes in East Kilbride on Saturday mornings. Our own Vigil Mass of Sunday, on Saturdays at 4.30pm, will take place as usual, preceded by Confessions at 4pm.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

The Children's Liturgy will recommence next Sunday, 12th January, at 9.30am Mass.

BLESSING OF HOMES IN THE NEW YEAR

It is longstanding custom of the Church to bless homes in the month of January. Father Martin has offered to do that again this year. Remember, our homes can be blessed more than once. Any parishioners who wish to have their home blessed, should speak to Father Martin after Mass, or contact him by email at frmartin@rcdom.org.uk
